

HOUSE of ELRICK

ABERDEEN SCOTLAND

WELCOME TO THE

Elrick Estate, Golf & Beyond

OUR HISTORY

Delve into the history of this unique and beautiful 17th century period Estate. Nestled in the lowlands of Aberdeenshire, the House of Elrick Estate is a family home which has only passed hands five times in 300 years. Built at the height of the Scottish Enlightenment period in 1720, it hosted lively discussions from some of the most respected creative, philosophical and scientific minds of the time. They include, Bonnie Prince Charlie and the famous illustrator Eleanor Vere Boyle.
